

Media Release – Corporation Headquarters
Neyaskweyahk Group of Companies Inc.
January 8th, 2019

Official Notice

The “4 Band Building” also known as “Miyo Wahkohtowin Education Authority” has a new name. The NGCI Board of Directors officially renamed the building on December 13th, 2018. The building will now be known as:

“Neyaskweyahk Group of Companies Inc. Innovation and Professional Building.”

Background

On November 2nd, 2018 Ermineskin Chief and Council passed a motion requested by NGCI to assign the “4 Nations Building” to NGCI management.

The Ermineskin Chief and Council hereby approve the NGCI Board of Directors recommendation to assign the Neyaskweyahk Group of Companies Inc. the old 4 band building. Further that a property management report and agreement will be developed and finalized with ECN Administration. The assignment becomes affective once the property management agreement is executed.

Existing Occupants

Top Floor – 12 office spaces available

- NGCI HQ – 6 office spaces
- EETF – 1 office space
- Vacant - 5 office spaces

Lower Floor – 4 office spaces available

- NGCI – Boardroom
- Ermineskin Children’s Services (ECS) – 2 office spaces
- Vacant – 2 office spaces

Maskwacis Mall Tenant Transition

Niwihcihaw Acceptance Ltd. (NAL) (2 offices) and Art Tralenberg Law office (1 office) will be the first to move to the building. This will allow NGCI to open up commercial retail space inside the Maskwacis Mall aimed to increase commerce.

3 month plan

- Review, revise and update the existing NGCI Property Management Agreement
- Update the signage for the building and advertising materials
- Transition NAL and Art Tralenberg Law Office to the NGCI Innovation and Professional Building
- Recruit and advertise for office space vacancy
